Please note:

- Full and concessionary rod licences expire on 31 March each year.
- One day rod licences are valid for 24 consecutive hours.
- Eight day rod licences are valid for 192 consecutive hours from the start time and date.
- You are breaking the law if you fish for freshwater fish and eels without a valid rod licence.
- If you are caught fishing without a valid licence you may be fined up to £2,500.
- If you fish without a rod licence you are cheating other anglers.
- Money raised through rod licence sales is invested in fisheries work to benefit all anglers.
